MURIEL BISHOP NOT FORCED TO CHOOSE

Justice Goff Signs Decree Giving Mrs. Bishop Divorce and $15,000 a Year.

Muriel Bishop, the eleven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Cunningham Bishop, whose custody was the only point of dispute among the terms of Mrs. Bishop's divorce, was given to her father yesterday by Justice Goff, after Mrs. Bishop had announced that she was willing to sacrifice her claim to the little girl so that she might not be told the circumstances under which her father and mother have been div orced.

Following this settlement of the child's custody, the only other question at issue was provision for visits by Muriel to her mother, and by Abigail, the five-year-old child, who is with her mother, to her father. It was settled late in the afternoon that each parent should visit the child in the custody of the other twice a week. It had already been decided that Mrs. Bishop was to have a counsel fee of $10,000 and alimony of $15,000 a year, and at 6 o'clock last night Justice Goff signed the decree at his chambers in the Criminal Courts Building.

Mrs Bishop did not go to court yester-day morning at the hour set for Muriel to make her choice between her parents. She sent word through her attorney. James W. Osborne, that she feared her daughter's affections had already been turned from her by the father and his relatives and that it was not likely in the circumstances that the child would decide against her father. Mr. Osborne said she realized that if the child had to decide it would be necessary for Justice Goff to tell would be necessary for Justice Goff to tell her something of the domestic trouble of her parents, and Mrs. Bishop preferred that the details be kept from the little girl as long as possible.

When Muriel was taken to Justice Goff's chambers by her governess she found there her two older sisters, Mary and Augusta, 20 and 19 years old respectively, who had already elected to go with their father. Muriel's father was also in the room and when she saw him she ran up and said:

me now all the time."

The fact that the child was to appear in court to choose between her parents had attracted a crowd to the corridors of the building.

Under the terms of the divorce decree Mr. Bishop has with him three daughters, Mary, 20; Augusta, 19, and Muriel, 11. Natalie, 15 years old, chose to be with her mother. Mr. Bishop made no request for the custody of the youngest child, Abigail.
